What is the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act and How Does it Apply to Your Business?

- Bribery and corruption is illegal under the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA)
- The FCPA applies to you wherever you operate because Kennametal is a U.S.-based corporation.
- Businesses and individuals can be personally prosecuted for engaging in bribery or corruption.
- Even alleged violations can seriously damage reputations:
  - -- Diminish our standing in the industry
  - -- Negatively affect customers' perceptions
  - -- Impair our ability to succeed, as individuals and as companies

The reputations of both companies are at stake!

Who is Covered Under the FCPA?

The FCPA applies to:

- U.S. Companies
- Foreign subsidiaries and affiliates of U.S. companies

[Examples include: KMT India Ltd., KSSPL, KMT Korea, Ltd., KMT (Xuzhou) Company Ltd., KMT Hardpoint Shanghai Ltd., KMT Singapore Pte Ltd., KMT Australia Pty, KMT Malaysia Sdn Bhd, KMT (Thailand) Co. Ltd.]

 Employees, Distributors and Third Party Agents of such companies

Kennametal's distributors must comply with the FCPA!

Who is a "Foreign Government Official" Under the FCPA?

Under the FCPA, the term "foreign government official" includes:

- Any officer or employee of a government or any department, agency, or instrumentality of the government.
- Any person acting in an official capacity for or on behalf of any foreign government, department, agency or instrumentality.
- Officers and employees of public international organizations (e.g. World Bank, United Nations).
- Political party officials and candidates for public office.

Always "KNOW" the party you are dealing with. Who do they work for?

What is "Bribery"?

A bribe is the giving or promising to give something of value (regardless of amount) to gain an improper advantage.

A few examples of bribes are cash, gift cards, sharing of commissions, vacations, extravagant gifts, employment opportunities in return for business gains...etc.

It is not just the value of the gift, but that it was given with the intent of getting a favorable decision or treatment in return, or to gain or retain business.

Business gifts and entertainment are generally permissible where they are reasonable in value, they are tied to a clear business purpose, and are not being offered in return for gaining or retaining business.

The giving or receiving of gifts, entertainment, or anything of value with a government official is strictly prohibited.

What is an "Improper Advantage"?

Includes the following:

- obtaining or retaining business;
- directing business to any person or firm;
- obtaining a tax break;

- realizing a break on customs duties through reclassification or undervaluation;
- extending an existing contract;
- obtaining permission to secure real estate;
- rendering a favorable judicial or regulatory decision, or waiver of penalties; and
- granting a license or concession.

When in doubt, ask questions and do not proceed!
